

I have used the Ontario Skills Passport to to:

- Learn about Essential Skills and work habits by viewing the Discover Your Skills video, the Introductory Skills Videos and other videos which show how people use these skills in everyday life.
- Try out some of the games and interactive learning resources on SkillsZone to learn more about Essential Skills, work habits and the Ontario Skills Passport.
- Search for tasks in Work, Learning and Life to get a better idea of how I use these skills in my life. Fill in a worksheet and describe how I use my Essential Skills and work habits.
- Track my skills demonstrations in community involvement.
- Track my skills demonstrations in the classroom.
- Update my OSP Tracker and use the OSP Reflection Worksheet to plan further skills development.
- Use my OSP skills information to develop my Individual Pathways Plan \(IPP\) and upload my OSP documents in my electronic IPP.
- View the Make Social Media Work For You video and use modules 1 and 2 to learn how to use social media safely and effectively and create a skills-based résumé.
